

Moving Away From El Paso Sale

Ordinarily, people hold sales to stay in El Paso. With me it is different. On June 1st I am going out of business in El Paso.

DURING THE ENTIRE MONTH OF MAY I WILL OFFER MY STOCK OF CLOTHING, FURNISHING GOODS, HATS, SHOES, TRUNKS AND VALISES AT COST AND LESS.

Now is the time to secure the best bargains of the season. Come and see for yourself.

IKE WOLF

THE HABERDASHER
404 San Antonio Street

CANANEA WINS FROM THE DEMONS

Cananea, Son., Mex., May 6.—Cananea won the Cinco de Mayo celebration game from Douglas Thursday on the Cananea grounds in a close three-to-two game.

Reardon pitched for Cananea and allowed Douglas but seven hits, one more than the winning team managed to score off of Pitts's curves.

The game was a very close one. It was two to nothing in the eighth, tied in the ninth and Cananea scored a hot one and won the game.

The former Bisbee pitcher worked well for Cananea, allowing the slugging Cananea club but six hits. The score was:

Cananea	R. H. E.
Douglas	3 6 2
Batteries—Cananea, Reardon and Bert Whaling; Douglas, Pitts and Le-Brand.	2 7 1

ROSWELL HIGH SCHOOL DEFEATS MILITARY INSTITUTE.

Roswell, N. M., May 6.—The Roswell high school defeated the New Mexico Military Institute in a game which was characterized by the display of much school spirit on the part of the supporters of the two teams. Wright pitched his maiden game for the high school and allowed the cadets only six hits. Higgins, the regular institute pitcher, allowed nine hits and had 14 strikeouts to his credit. The score:

High School	R. H. E.
Military Institute	3 9 2
Batteries—Higgins, Higgins and Le-Brand.	3 6 6

GOVERNOR CANNOT STOP THE BIG BATTLE

Under California Laws Cannot Interfere in Jeff-Johnson Bout.

Sacramento, Cal., May 6.—Ministers of this section who have been protesting so loudly against prize fighting in view of the McCarthy killing, must go about the abolition in a more systematic manner or fail. Governor Gillett has been flooded with letters regarding the matter, and in his absence E. Forrester Mitchell, executive secretary to the governor, has answered the many pleas in one circular letter. The epistle, addressed to the religious organizations of San Francisco, Santa Clara, Los Angeles, Fresno and Alameda county, reads as follows:

"To the Ministerial Union of Fresno, Rev. Ray O. Miller, chairman, Fresno, Calif.

"Gentlemen: This office is in receipt of your letter enclosing resolutions passed by the Ministerial union of Fresno relative to suppressing the Jeff-Johnson prize fight, or contest, July 4, 1910.

"Governor Gillett is en route to Washington at the present time and probably will not return to Sacramento for at least a month. Lieutenant and acting governor Porter will not be in this office until a week or ten days from now.

"Replying to your letter in their absence permit me to say that the governor is not in favor of prize fights, that he has never attended one in his life and says he never will. However, under the laws of California I believe he is helpless to prevent or suppress this so-called boxing contest because the law allows such contests, if the necessary permit to be obtained has been granted by the local authorities. In this instance I understand this permit has been granted.

"I would suggest that you file your complaint with the district attorney or Alameda county, and if this is a prize fight and not a boxing contest he has the law in his hands to put a stop to it. In all probability, however, the local authorities will be seriously handicapped until such time as the law is amended by the state legislature so that the distinction is clearly shown between a prize fight and a so-called boxing contest.

"I have the honor to be, dear sirs, Yours faithfully,

E. F. Mitchell,

Executive Secretary.

Another Protest.—San Francisco, May 6.—Further protest against the Jeff-Johnson fight was made today at a meeting of Methodist Episcopal ministers. Resolutions of denunciation will be sent to governor Gillett.

JOHNSON GETS HIS CAR; STILL PUTS OFF TRAINING

San Francisco, Cal., May 6.—That big motor car has arrived, and Jack Johnson's trainers are greatly worried. So far the negro fighter has done little training. But he has promised to start in earnest by Monday. Moreover, the arrival of the car causes grave doubts.

Ball Bug Busy At Bisbee; Cactus Players Outlawed

By Lee
Hamilton

Bisbee, Ariz., May 6.—Like unto the big league towns of the east, Bisbee has become a victim of the rooting bug and become so duly impressed with its infallibility to rattle opposing twirlers that a meeting will be called next week for the organization of a Bisbee Rooters' club.

Not only one will she have, but two, for even the town of Warren, that does not contain anything outside of the ball park but the stores, the C. & A. offices and some houses, enthusiasm has reached the organization point.

The Warren movement is being conducted by Billy Ferguson, expert chauffeur, who, when his rich base voice plays out can grab the "honk" apparatus off his auto and turn it loose with equal effect.

In Bisbee, the rooters' club idea is being promoted by attorney Roy Morfoot, Bobbie Newcomb, a prominent Elk, and Joe McKeenan, one of the directors of the ball club, and who never misses nor intends to miss a game, either at home or away from home.

A meeting of the Bisbee bunch will be held the first part of next week, when officers will be elected and committees appointed to select yell, compose songs, select distinguishing badges and see just what implement produces the loudest noise outside the lung circuit.

The concerted rooting stunt will be "tried on the dog" Sunday at Douglas, when about 20 promoters and boosters of the yell idea will journey thither to witness the Sabbath season between Maroons and Demons. That it will help a whole lot is the universal belief.

Atmospheric strife in the baseball circle has been rather on the all order this week. Everything is moving along with the calmness and placidness of an Indiana rivulet on a summer's day.

Spout or two that chokes the players at practice on the Warren diamond is about all.

The boys have been out every day this week. Lamar is being worked on and it looks as though they were going to let Pike play the bench for awhile. He's a pretty valuable man to have around, as he can hit and run bases like a deer. His qualities as a pinch hitter will be invaluable when a substitute batter is wanted who can turn the trick without fail.

Lamar is proving a whirling dervish at his position, and manager Dalrymple states that his infield is the fastest in the league. Already several big league scouts have been writing for tips on the men and have been "piped off" to first.

Peter, of the postroom, is beginning to tell us that he is going to the fight. Judging from his remarks there is no question about it, yes, one, transportation and gate money. That's all.

Jack Johnson's automobile has arrived in San Francisco. Jack likes to train by dodging park policemen. His San Francisco record just has begun. It has nothing to do with the Cactus league, but Vernon shut out Portland Thursday. It is remarked in passing, only that.

It has nothing to do with prizefighting, but the principal races at Longchamps Thursday were won by horses from W. K. Vanderbilt's stable. His horse named Seaside—disgusting name that—won $4000 in the Prix Dollar, which probably is something like a Mexican dollar.

Young Oldfield cares not a puff puff for Friday the 13th. He has promised to appear in Levee, May 13, and do some speed demon work, racing willing or not. Rah for Barn.

Young, a southpaw, walked two men and filled the bases at the Detroit-Lansing game Thursday, thus undoing a tie.

It is suspected that Jeff's old ginger is coming back. But—let's not—let's really nothing say. Sam Berger said so after the second day of training. But then Berger's a prophet, and now we really know.

Oakland shut out Sacramento with two runs Thursday. That's all right.

English lovers of polo are to be asked for—hold your breath—$50,000 to send a team over the drink to compete in the United States for the cup won last year by the American team.

Washington was swamped by Philadelphia, Thursday. It resulted 10 one. It was the worst sockenfest of the season.

Dan Patch, Minor Heir, George Gano, Hedgewood Boy, and Lady Maud C. are going to be most popular race and exhibition attractions at northern fairs this season.

Cleveland played its seventh extra inning game Thursday, beating St. Louis 2 and 1.

The national regatta to be held in August promises to bring forth the best art talent in the land.

It has been announced from Yale football headquarters that Joseph B. McCallough, a 160-pound freshman tackle, must undergo an operation as the result of a dangerous injury to his knee. Has it begun already?

By Lee Hamilton

According to the Sporting News, just about a score of players on the circuit have been declared outlaws. Savannah has put the ban on Harry Kane, Shreveport on Guyump, Bob Whaling, Lee Oram, Blain Johnson, Black, of El Paso, Eddie Ward, of Douglas, is also an outlaw. Thus far the Bisbee men have escaped. A few of them, however, notably Dalrymple, Lamar, Pike and Deakin, are free agents but the rest of them are liable to get it.

No doubt before the end of the season the clubs of the Cactus circuit will be branded as outlaws. But there's no use letting us worry anybody. By the time the schedule is finished the way things size up now, the make believe league will be self supporting and able to break a little better than even.

This is particularly true of Bisbee and the Warren district. With the winner that everybody's sure we have, the games will draw better than Douglas and Cananea put together. The only one to outstrip her will be El Paso, but that's to be expected, with nearly twice as many people to draw from.

Things looked more encouraging last Sunday than they have since. Every inception, Sunday saw the largest crowd in the park's history, 1139 paying to see the games. With those who came in on passes, etc., the attendance over 1200 with a good many to spare.

Ray Weisel, utility man and second catcher, has been released by Dalrymple and Cananea put together. The only one to outstrip her will be El Paso, but that's to be expected, with nearly twice as many people to draw from.

It's just like starting the season over again Sunday and Sunday. Every series, whoever cops two games will have a big edge. Bisbee's going to try and with any kind of weather, that is, elimination of the miniature cyclones that have put crimps in fielding and shot the error columns full of counts, hope to succeed. Not a real game of baseball has yet been played. The boys are all praying for a day when the breeze will go take a snooze and give them a chance to demonstrate the real fine points of the national game.

Then came the bout with Choyinski. The two faced each other for the first time since the 20 round draw in San Francisco in 1897. Choyinski looked like a plucky youngster, the former champion, Choyinski evidently is in better shape than any of the other boxers in the Jeffries camp. He displayed much of his old time agility and prowess and came out of the contest without being distressed. They went at it with a will, Jeffries favoring Joe all the way, being even more gentle with him than with Papke. Choyinski declared that after a few more days of sparring he would show to better advantage.

Papke will leave here for training quarters near San Francisco Sunday. He would have liked to complete his training for Joe Thomas here but said promoter Coffroth insisted on his being nearer the scene of his coming bout. Jeffries has taken a great fancy to Papke and will greatly regret his departure.

Ben Lomond, Cal., May 6.—James J. Jeffries went two lively goes yesterday. Joe Choyinski and Billy Papke being the sufferers. But the big heavyweight in training did not do his worst. He was as gentle as possible, but at that not so very lamblike.

No occasion for concern was permitted in the big enclosure for both Choyinski and Papke were to be taken on for the first time and Jeffries has always been adverse to the prying eyes of strangers on such occasions. Papke was taken on first, Jeffries being as gentle with the middleweight as his natural ruggedness would permit. In the second round he gave Billy a rather stiff right over the eye which severely blacked up the boy from Kewanee and raised a bit of a lump which probably will discolor before morning.

"Better not use that on me again," Papke whispered as they faded and thereafter Jeffries used his left entirely.

After the set-to with Jeffries, Papke said: "I wish I had boxed with Jeffries all the time. Not once did he hit me hard intentionally, and a fellow like me can learn a lot boxing with him. I am pretty strong myself, but I was a mere baby in his hands. When he leaned his weight on me a couple of times, I thought he was going to break my back."

Then came the bout with Choyinski. The two faced each other for the first time since the 20 round draw in San Francisco in 1897. Choyinski looked like a plucky youngster, the former champion, Choyinski evidently is in better shape than any of the other boxers in the Jeffries camp. He displayed much of his old time agility and prowess and came out of the contest without being distressed. They went at it with a will, Jeffries favoring Joe all the way, being even more gentle with him than with Papke. Choyinski declared that after a few more days of sparring he would show to better advantage.

Papke will leave here for training quarters near San Francisco Sunday. He would have liked to complete his training for Joe Thomas here but said promoter Coffroth insisted on his being nearer the scene of his coming bout. Jeffries has taken a great fancy to Papke and will greatly regret his departure.

Ben Lomond, Cal., May 6.—James J. Jeffries went two lively goes yesterday. Joe Choyinski and Billy Papke being the sufferers. But the big heavyweight in training did not do his worst. He was as gentle as possible, but at that not so very lamblike.

No occasion for concern was permitted in the big enclosure for both Choyinski and Papke were to be taken on for the first time and Jeffries has always been adverse to the prying eyes of strangers on such occasions. Papke was taken on first, Jeffries being as gentle with the middleweight as his natural ruggedness would permit. In the second round he gave Billy a rather stiff right over the eye which severely blacked up the boy from Kewanee and raised a bit of a lump which probably will discolor before morning.

"Better not use that on me again," Papke whispered as they faded and thereafter Jeffries used his left entirely.

After the set-to with Jeffries, Papke said: "I wish I had boxed with Jeffries all the time. Not once did he hit me hard intentionally, and a fellow like me can learn a lot boxing with him. I am pretty strong myself, but I was a mere baby in his hands. When he leaned his weight on me a couple of times, I thought he was going to break my back."

Then came the bout with Choyinski. The two faced each other for the first time since the 20 round draw in San Francisco in 1897. Choyinski looked like a plucky youngster, the former champion, Choyinski evidently is in better shape than any of the other boxers in the Jeffries camp. He displayed much of his old time agility and prowess and came out of the contest without being distressed. They went at it with a will, Jeffries favoring Joe all the way, being even more gentle with him than with Papke. Choyinski declared that after a few more days of sparring he would show to better advantage.

Papke will leave here for training quarters near San Francisco Sunday. He would have liked to complete his training for Joe Thomas here but said promoter Coffroth insisted on his being nearer the scene of his coming bout. Jeffries has taken a great fancy to Papke and will greatly regret his departure.

Ben Lomond, Cal., May 6.—James J. Jeffries went two lively goes yesterday. Joe Choyinski and Billy Papke being the sufferers. But the big heavyweight in training did not do his worst. He was as gentle as possible, but at that not so very lamblike.

No occasion for concern was permitted in the big enclosure for both Choyinski and Papke were to be taken on for the first time and Jeffries has always been adverse to the prying eyes of strangers on such occasions. Papke was taken on first, Jeffries being as gentle with the middleweight as his natural ruggedness would permit. In the second round he gave Billy a rather stiff right over the eye which severely blacked up the boy from Kewanee and raised a bit of a lump which probably will discolor before morning.

"Better not use that on me again," Papke whispered as they faded and thereafter Jeffries used his left entirely.

After the set-to with Jeffries, Papke said: "I wish I had boxed with Jeffries all the time. Not once did he hit me hard intentionally, and a fellow like me can learn a lot boxing with him. I am pretty strong myself, but I was a mere baby in his hands. When he leaned his weight on me a couple of times, I thought he was going to break my back."

Then came the bout with Choyinski. The two faced each other for the first time since the 20 round draw in San Francisco in 1897. Choyinski looked like a plucky youngster, the former champion, Choyinski evidently is in better shape than any of the other boxers in the Jeffries camp. He displayed much of his old time agility and prowess and came out of the contest without being distressed. They went at it with a will, Jeffries favoring Joe all the way, being even more gentle with him than with Papke. Choyinski declared that after a few more days of sparring he would show to better advantage.

Papke will leave here for training quarters near San Francisco Sunday. He would have liked to complete his training for Joe Thomas here but said promoter Coffroth insisted on his being nearer the scene of his coming bout. Jeffries has taken a great fancy to Papke and will greatly regret his departure.

Ben Lomond, Cal., May 6.—James J. Jeffries went two lively goes yesterday. Joe Choyinski and Billy Papke being the sufferers. But the big heavyweight in training did not do his worst. He was as gentle as possible, but at that not so very lamblike.

No occasion for concern was permitted in the big enclosure for both Choyinski and Papke were to be taken on for the first time and Jeffries has always been adverse to the prying eyes of strangers on such occasions. Papke was taken on first, Jeffries being as gentle with the middleweight as his natural ruggedness would permit. In the second round he gave Billy a rather stiff right over the eye which severely blacked up the boy from Kewanee and raised a bit of a lump which probably will discolor before morning.

"Better not use that on me again," Papke whispered as they faded and thereafter Jeffries used his left entirely.

After the set-to with Jeffries, Papke said: "I wish I had boxed with Jeffries all the time. Not once did he hit me hard intentionally, and a fellow like me can learn a lot boxing with him. I am pretty strong myself, but I was a mere baby in his hands. When he leaned his weight on me a couple of times, I thought he was going to break my back."

Then came the bout with Choyinski. The two faced each other for the first time since the 20 round draw in San Francisco in 1897. Choyinski looked like a plucky youngster, the former champion, Choyinski evidently is in better shape than any of the other boxers in the Jeffries camp. He displayed much of his old time agility and prowess and came out of the contest without being distressed. They went at it with a will, Jeffries favoring Joe all the way, being even more gentle with him than with Papke. Choyinski declared that after a few more days of sparring he would show to better advantage.

Papke will leave here for training quarters near San Francisco Sunday. He would have liked to complete his training for Joe Thomas here but said promoter Coffroth insisted on his being nearer the scene of his coming bout. Jeffries has taken a great fancy to Papke and will greatly regret his departure.

NAMES ATHLETES FOR FEDERATION MEET

El Paso's Y. M. C. A. Color
Bearers Ready for Contest
at A. & M. College.

The representatives of the El Paso Y. M. C. A., who will represent the organization at the meeting of the Southwestern Amateur Athletic federation at A. & M. college, have been announced as follows:

Field Events.
Running high jump—Miller, Scarborough and Hester.
Running broad jump—Rumsey and Ronan.
Twelve pound shot put—Bowman and Hahn.
Pole vault—Halle, Pickens and Hahn.

Track Events.
100 yard dash—Rumsey, Miller and Stevenson.
220 yard hurdles—Brouillet and Scarborough.
880 yard run—Romero, Kindig and Dudley.
140 yard run—Wyman, Miller and Ronan.

Mile relay.—Wyman, Miller, Brouillet, Rumsey, Ronan and Stevenson.
Under the coaching of physical director Mitchell and track captain Wyman, both of whom have had considerable experience in coaching and actual competition, the men are developing in good shape, even though the material is for the most part entirely new. Several good records have been made in practice and the men will make strong competition for the other organizations competing.

The meet is to take place Saturday, May 7, at the A. & M. college, at Mesilla Park, N. M. Special rates have been secured and with the high school athletes and the friends of the local teams a large party is expected to go on the trip.

The medals for the individual point winners are on display in the window of the Snyder Jewelry company, and are of very attractive design. In addition to the regulation medals and the team trophy, word has come from H. D. Bowman, of Las Cruces, offering an additional cup to the organization winning the mile relay race.

me can learn a lot boxing with him. I am pretty strong myself, but I was a mere baby in his hands. When he leaned his weight on me a couple of times, I thought he was going to break my back."

Then came the bout with Choyinski. The two faced each other for the first time since the 20 round draw in San Francisco in 1897. Choyinski looked like a plucky youngster, the former champion, Choyinski evidently is in better shape than any of the other boxers in the Jeffries camp. He displayed much of his old time agility and prowess and came out of the contest without being distressed. They went at it with a will, Jeffries favoring Joe all the way, being even more gentle with him than with Papke. Choyinski declared that after a few more days of sparring he would show to better advantage.

Papke will leave here for training quarters near San Francisco Sunday. He would have liked to complete his training for Joe Thomas here but said promoter Coffroth insisted on his being nearer the scene of his coming bout. Jeffries has taken a great fancy to Papke and will greatly regret his departure.

Ben Lomond, Cal., May 6.—James J. Jeffries went two lively goes yesterday. Joe Choyinski and Billy Papke being the sufferers. But the big heavyweight in training did not do his worst. He was as gentle as possible, but at that not so very lamblike.

No occasion for concern was permitted in the big enclosure for both Choyinski and Papke were to be taken on for the first time and Jeffries has always been adverse to the prying eyes of strangers on such occasions. Papke was taken on first, Jeffries being as gentle with the middleweight as his natural ruggedness would permit. In the second round he gave Billy a rather stiff right over the eye which severely blacked up the boy from Kewanee and raised a bit of a lump which probably will discolor before morning.

"Better not use that on me again," Papke whispered as they faded and thereafter Jeffries used his left entirely.

After the set-to with Jeffries, Papke said: "I wish I had boxed with Jeffries all the time. Not once did he hit me hard intentionally, and a fellow like me can learn a lot boxing with him. I am pretty strong myself, but I was a mere baby in his hands. When he leaned his weight on me a couple of times, I thought he was going to break my back."

Then came the bout with Choyinski. The two faced each other for the first time since the 20 round draw in San Francisco in 1897. Choyinski looked like a plucky youngster, the former champion, Choyinski evidently is in better shape than any of the other boxers in the Jeffries camp. He displayed much of his old time agility and prowess and came out of the contest without being distressed. They went at it with a will, Jeffries favoring Joe all the way, being even more gentle with him than with Papke. Choyinski declared that after a few more days of sparring he would show to better advantage.

Papke will leave here for training quarters near San Francisco Sunday. He would have liked to complete his training for Joe Thomas here but said promoter Coffroth insisted on his being nearer the scene of his coming bout. Jeffries has taken a great fancy to Papke and will greatly regret his departure.

Ben Lomond, Cal., May 6.—James J. Jeffries went two lively goes yesterday. Joe Choyinski and Billy Papke being the sufferers. But the big heavyweight in training did not do his worst. He was as gentle as possible, but at that not so very lamblike.

No occasion for concern was permitted in the big enclosure for both Choyinski and Papke were to be taken on for the first time and Jeffries has always been adverse to the prying eyes of strangers on such occasions. Papke was taken on first, Jeffries being as gentle with the middleweight as his natural ruggedness would permit. In the second round he gave Billy a rather stiff right over the eye which severely blacked up the boy from Kewanee and raised a bit of a lump which probably will discolor before morning.

"Better not use that on me again," Papke whispered as they faded and thereafter Jeffries used his left entirely.

After the set-to with Jeffries, Papke said: "I wish I had boxed with Jeffries all the time. Not once did he hit me hard intentionally, and a fellow like me can learn a lot boxing with him. I am pretty strong myself, but I was a mere baby in his hands. When he leaned his weight on me a couple of times, I thought he was going to break my back."

Then came the bout with Choyinski. The two faced each other for the first time since the 20 round draw in San Francisco in 1897. Choyinski looked like a plucky youngster, the former champion, Choyinski evidently is in better shape than any of the other boxers in the Jeffries camp. He displayed much of his old time agility and prowess and came out of the contest without being distressed. They went at it with a will, Jeffries favoring Joe all the way, being even more gentle with him than with Papke. Choyinski declared that after a few more days of sparring he would show to better advantage.

Papke will leave here for training quarters near San Francisco Sunday. He would have liked to complete his training for Joe Thomas here but said promoter Coffroth insisted on his being nearer the scene of his coming bout. Jeffries has taken a great fancy to Papke and will greatly regret his departure.

Ben Lomond, Cal., May 6.—James J. Jeffries went two lively goes yesterday. Joe Choyinski and Billy Papke being the sufferers. But the big heavyweight in training did not do his worst. He was as gentle as possible, but at that not so very lamblike.

No occasion for concern was permitted in the big enclosure for both Choyinski and Papke were to be taken on for the first time and Jeffries has always been adverse to the prying eyes of strangers on such occasions. Papke was taken on first, Jeffries being as gentle with the middleweight as his natural ruggedness would permit. In the second round he gave Billy a rather stiff right over the eye which severely blacked up the boy from Kewanee and raised a bit of a lump which probably will discolor before morning.

"Better not use that on me again," Papke whispered as they faded and thereafter Jeffries used his left entirely.

After the set-to with Jeffries, Papke said: "I wish I had boxed with Jeffries all the time. Not once did he hit me hard intentionally, and a fellow like me can learn a lot boxing with him. I am pretty strong myself, but I was a mere baby in his hands. When he leaned his weight on me a couple of times, I thought he was going to break my back."

Then came the bout with Choyinski. The two faced each other for the first time since the 20 round draw in San Francisco in 1897. Choyinski looked like a plucky youngster, the former champion, Choyinski evidently is in better shape than any of the other boxers in the Jeffries camp. He displayed much of his old time agility and prowess and came out of the contest without being distressed. They went at it with a will, Jeffries favoring Joe all the way, being even more gentle with him than with Papke. Choyinski declared that after a few more days of sparring he would show to better advantage.

Papke will leave here for training quarters near San Francisco Sunday. He would have liked to complete his training for Joe Thomas here but said promoter Coffroth insisted on his being nearer the scene of his coming bout. Jeffries has taken a great fancy to Papke and will greatly regret his departure.

Ben Lomond, Cal., May 6.—James J. Jeffries went two lively goes yesterday. Joe Choyinski and Billy Papke being the sufferers. But the big heavyweight in training did not do his worst. He was as gentle as possible, but at that not so very lamblike.

No occasion for concern was permitted in the big enclosure for both Choyinski and Papke were to be taken on for the first time and Jeffries has always been adverse to the prying eyes of strangers on such occasions. Papke was taken on first, Jeffries being as gentle with the middleweight as his natural ruggedness would permit. In the second round he gave Billy a rather stiff right over the eye which severely blacked up the boy from Kewanee and raised a bit of a lump which probably will discolor before morning.

"Better not use that on me again," Papke whispered as they faded and thereafter Jeffries used his left entirely.

After the set-to with Jeffries, Papke said: "I wish I had boxed with Jeffries all the time. Not once did he hit me hard intentionally, and a fellow like me can learn a lot boxing with him. I am pretty strong myself, but I was a mere baby in his hands. When he leaned his weight on me a couple of times, I thought he was going to break my back."

You Always Get Meat Satisfaction Here

It is no secret when one comes here for his meats, that he always comes thereafter. It's just the fact that we give the freshest, choicest and finest meats for the least possible money. A child will get as good meat as the most particular person. The same courteous treatment to all.

SPECIALS FOR SATURDAY

Prime rib roast, per lb.	15c
Veal shoulder roast, per lb.	15c
Veal stew, per lb.	12 1-2c
Home rendered lard, bulk or in pail, per lb.	17 1-2c